GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED: The initial investigation of Nacarto Gladden's murder was conducted by members of the Metropolitan Police Department Homicide Unit. In 2012 the investigation was turned over to the Metropolitan Police Department Cold Case/Major Case Unit. Several witnesses have been interviewed in reference to this investigation; the witnesses used in this warrant will hereinafter be referred to as W-1 and W-2.  W-1 stated that while in the area of the 4900 block of Quarles street, Northeast, W-1 witnessed Don Hancock forcibly pull the decedent from the passenger seat of a vehicle and engage the decedent in a tussle. W-1 stated, while the decedent and Don Hancock were tussling they ended up on the ground and W-1 heard the decedent state, "Why you got a gun?" While Don Hancock and the decedent were tussling, W-1 observed the defendant, REYNAUD COOK, approach the decedent and Don Hancock in a stealthy manner brandishing a handgun. W-1 stated when IT observed Reynaud sneaking up on Don Hancock and the decedent, W-1 fled. As W-1 was leaving IT heard three gunshots, when W-1 heard the shots IT was within close proximity to the decedent, Don Hancock and the defendant.

GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED:
Recovered from the crime scene were three nine millimeter shell casings. Recovered from the decedent's body were three bullets and one fragment. A ballistic examination conducted by the MPDC Firearms Examination Unit determined that two of the shell casings were fired from the same weapon and the third shell casing was fired from a different weapon. The examination also revealed that the bullets from the decedent's body were either .38Special or .357 Magnum bullets. Two of them were fired from the same weapon, but lacked sufficient markings to identify or eliminate it as having been fired from the same weapon. No identifiable characteristics were found on the fragment. When W-1 was initially interviewed by detectives in 2007, W-1 did not place the defendant on the scene of the homicide of the decedent. Furthermore, W-1 was shown a nine picture photo spread which contained the photo of Don Hancock and W-1 didn't make an identification of Don Hancock. W-1 was also re-interviewed and admitted that IT had seen both the defendant and Don Hancock at the scene of this murder, consistent with the observations IT made on page two, paragraph two of this affidavit. W-1 also later made an identification of Don Hancock from a nine picture spread. W-1 admitted that IT lied early into the investigation because IT knew Don Hancock and the defendant from the neighborhood, and W-1 had safety concerns.

GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED: W-1 was shown a photo sheet with nine police department photos. The photos did not bear any names or police identification numbers. W-1 examined the sheet before picking photo #3. The photo that W-1 identified is a photo of Reynaud Cook.  W-2 was interviewed and stated IT has known "Rizzy" for more than a year. W-2 stated the decedent was killed early in the morning; and the evening before the decedent was killed W-2 witnessed the defendant in the possession of a black handgun. W-2 believed the gun was a .9 millimeter handgun.  W-2 was shown a single photo of Reynaud Cook. W-2 examined the photo and positively identified the photo as "Rizzy" and "Ray".  This investigation has revealed that Reynaud Cook is also known as Rizzy and Ray.

GIVE BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF WHAT HAPPENED: Based on the aforementioned facts and circumstances Your Affiant believes that it is more probable than not that the defendant, Reynaud Cook shot and killed Nacarto Gladden on June 17, 2007, in the rear of 4923 Quarles street, Northeast. Therefore Your Affiant respectfully requests that a D.C. Superior Court Arrest warrant be issued for the arrest of Reynaud Cook, charging him with Murder 1 While Armed.

SUPPLEMENTAL GERSTEIN

In addition to the affidavits in support of the above-captioned defendant's arrest warrants, and his two pending indictments, which are incorporated herein, your affiant avers the following:

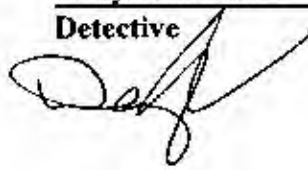

On February 16, 2012, a warrant was issued for the defendant's arrest for the February 15, 2012 shooting of Yolanda Stone. On April 2, 2012, a warrant was issued for the defendant's arrest for Obstructing Justice for conduct which took place between February 9, 2012 and February 14, 2012. On May 20, 2012, Yolanda Stone died as a result from the February 15, 2012 shooting. On September 5, 2012, a warrant was issued for the defendant's arrest for the July 17, 2007 murder of Nacarto Gladden. On June 27, 2012, a Grand Jury indicted the defendant for the Obstructing Justice case. On June 28, 2012, a Grand Jury indicted the defendant for charges related to the murder of Yolanda Stone. On July 2, 2012, the Grand Jury returned a superseding indictment of the defendant for the Obstructing Justice case.

Since February 16, 2012, the warrant squad has been searching for the defendant to effect these arrests, but was unable to find him due to his flight, until May 17, 2013, when he was arrested for false identification to law enforcement in State College, Pennsylvania. After his arrest, the defendant used the false names of Nathen Davis and Aaron Brooks. After his arrest, the defendant initially refused to be fingerprinted.

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia and were committed as described by defendant(s) listed in the case caption.

Subscribed and sworn before me this 29 day of May, 2013

Your affiant also learned that on May 10, 2013, the defendant was taken into custody for mental observation in State College, Pennsylvania for aberrant behavior consistent with drug usage. During his ride to the hospital, the defendant claimed he had taken a pack of "No Noz." At the hospital, the defendant used the name of Aaron Brooks and tried to escape. Hospital staff also observed the defendant trying to throw away a small computer chip card from his cell phone, in an effort to destroy evidence from his cell phone.

Your affiant has further learned, that on May 17, 2013, the defendant phoned 911 repeatedly, and claimed that men with guns and bombs were present. He was located in State College, Pennsylvania and again identified himself by the names of Aaron Brooks and Nathen Davis. An arresting officer determined that he was under the influence of a drug due to paranoid, erratic behavior. When the officer told the defendant he was going to be arrested and fingerprinted for false identification to law enforcement, the defendant attempted to flee. When he was taken into custody, he told law enforcement that he was under the influence of Bath Salts. Your affiant has learned that some forms of Bath Salts are a synthetic form of Speed (drugs) which are illegally ingested and are known to cause erratic and violent behavior.
